Thank You

The family of Gregory Mathias Loehmer wish to express their sincere gratitude for the sympathy and compassion given to us at the time of the loss of our dear fiancé, father, grandfather, son, brother and uncle.

Our thanks to all of our extended families, relatives, neighbors and friends, who prayed, helped and supported us, prior to and after the funeral in so many different ways, for which we are really appreciative. We are especially thankful for the kindnesses extended by Greg's Plymouth Tube Family and by Eastern Pulaski Community Schools.

If you have property being held at the Winamac Police Department, please contact Chief Tyler Campbell at 574-946-3451 and leave a message with your contact information and detailed description of your property.

HERE'S WHAT YOU MISSED in this week's PULASKI COUNTY JOURNAL

Journal welcomes Galbreath to news staff as editor, reporter

The staff of the Pulaski County Journal and Independent is pleased to welcome Megan Galbreath to the office as a news reporter and editor.

Galbreath grew up on a farm in the Royal Center area and is a 2016 graduate of Pioneer Junior-Senior High School. She went on to attend Valparaiso University where she was a writer for her campus newspaper. Galbreath recently graduated in 2020, receiving her Bachelor of Arts degree in communication with a concentration in journalism.

She decided she wanted to be a journalist at a young age and cites her love and passion for writing and helping others as a reason for pursuing her degree. "One thing I've learned is that everyone has a story," Galbreath recalled, "and I'm excited to have the opportunity to help tell the stories of the people of Pulaski County."

In addition to writing, she also enjoys photography and helping out on the family farm.

You can reach Megan at 574-946-6628 or by email at news@pulaskijournal.com.
