Winamac names homecoming queen, king

At halftime of the Winamac vs. North Judson football game Maggie Smith was named homecoming queen and Joey Collins was named homecoming king.

THE FRONT NINE by Paul Hettinger Lady Warriors celebrate HNAC title

The three-year dry spell came to an end Saturday, Sept. 12, at Chesapeake Run Golf Club when the Winamac girls golf team beat Pioneer for the Hoosier North Athletic Conference title. The Lady Panthers came in as the defending champion after slipping by Winamac last season by 6 strokes.

The Lady Warriors were on the right side of the scorecard edging Pioneer by 4 strokes, 434-438. North Judson was third (468) while Culver, Knox, LaVille and Triton played with incomplete teams.

Keira Bucinski was second overall after carding a 97, earned all-conference accolades while Janet Calfee (106) also was named all-conference. Megan Wentz (114) and Giselle Lowry (117) were both conference honorable mentions and Bianca Huizar finished with a 125.

After winning the final Midwest Conference championship in 2013, Winamac got off to a hot start in the HNAC, winning back-to-back titles in 2015 and 2016. Since then, the Lady Warriors had been runner-up twice and third in 2018.

Reaching Indiana Voters: Most Hoosiers Read Newspapers

16% of Hoosier voters don't decide until at least a week prior to an election for whom to vote, enough to swing many elections.

8 in 10 consumers use a newspaper product at least weekly

*Number of adults.
Source: American Opinion Research, 2017
The research is based on interviews with 1,000 adults age 18 and over selected at random throughout the state of Indiana (using landlines, cellphones and online). Interviewing was conducted between July 24 and August 13, 2017. Results are accurate to within plus or minus 3.1 percentage points.
