Santa,

I would love to know what you're saying. I would love you to know I love your nice gifts. We are going to bring you some nice cookies to eat and I will work on a note for you. I hope you remember to bring your list to us. That's so nice of you to bring so much stuff and I love everything you gave me. I love it so much because I like you Santa. It's been such a long time since Christmas and Mama can't write that fast as me. I have a bed that's big and I can sleep in all by myself and Santa, I like you. I'd like to ask for Christmas toys. I would like to have a dinosaur and dragon and a unicorn and I love to say we're going to bring you some lovely nice yummy cookies to eat. And um, why did the old people used to call you St. Nick?

Throughout the month, you can bring donations of mittens, gloves, scarves, hats, and more to hang on the library's mitten tree. Items will then be donated to local preschools and elementary schools for children in need.
- The sandhill cranes are back at the Jasper-Pulaski Fish and Wildlife Area, and you can pick up a Crane Activity Kit for kids at the library to celebrate this local wonder of nature. Each kit includes a coloring sheet, word search, comic, crane sticker, and more. Kids will also learn about cranes and how they can become a crane hero.
- The Elf on the Shelf is back! Starting December 6th, the elf will be hiding somewhere in the library. If you find him, you'll win a Christmas prize! The elf will move each week in December, so come back to try and find him again throughout the month.

For most of us, the holidays are a time to gather with friends and family to celebrate the season and time with loved ones. However, for some, especially older individuals, the holidays can be a difficult time. During the holidays, older adults may feel more acutely the passing of time, the absence of family and friends who have died or the distance of those who have moved away. Traditional reunions and rituals that were observed in the past may not be possible and in their absence, the holidays may seem to have no meaning.

If you are a senior adult facing any of these challenges, you may enter into a period of depression, that, without help, may lead to physical illness and a loss of quality of life.

Here are signs to look for:

- Persistent sadness
- Withdrawal from regular social activities
- Slowed thinking or response
- Lack of energy or interest in things that once were enjoyable
- Excess worry about finances or health
- Frequent tearfulness
- Feelings of worthlessness or helplessness
- Weight changes
- Pacing and fidgeting
- Changes in sleep patterns (inability to sleep or excessive sleep)
- Staring off into space (or at the television) for prolonged periods of time

If you cannot shake those feelings of hopelessness and emptiness, call (574) 946-0386 to set up an appointment at PMH Senior Care.
