Thank You
 The family of Haylee Patton wishes to thank the Northern Indiana Power From the Past directors and advisors for their generous donation and to the ladies who put out the donation buckets at the Farm Toy Show to help with Haylee's medical expenses due to the injury to her leg.
 Thank you for always caring and helping our community. You are the best.
 Also, a big thank you to all those who sent cards, balloons and gifts to help cheer her and show how much you care. They make her smile every time she receives one. Also, we thank you for all your prayers for her recovery. We are truly blessed by your outpouring of love and kindness.

HERE'S WHAT YOU MISSED IN THIS WEEK'S PULASKI COUNTY JOURNAL

Eastern Pulaski schools welcome state superintendent Glenda Ritz

Paul Hettinger

Administrators, faculty and students were treated to a special visitor when State Superintendent of Public Instruction Glenda Ritz spent several hours touring all three schools in Winamac Friday. Ritz was very engaging taking time to speak with classrooms, individual students and teachers, even posing for a selfie along the way.

"I've been visiting schools all over the state of Indiana and I'm excited to be here in Winamac this morning," Ritz said. "Traveling and seeing the schools is what I need, because I'm an educator at heart. Being with the children is important to me. I like to spend a lot of time with the classrooms reading and working with the students. I need that every week to make sure I'm touching base with the field right down to the grassroots level."

Before her election Ritz worked as an educator and media specialist for many years. She won teacher of the year awards at two different schools and is one of 155 nationally board certified teachers in the state of Indiana. She served as president of the Washington Township Education Association for 15 years leading up to her election. She holds bachelor's and master's degrees in education from Ball State University, and received a second master's degree in library science from IUPUI.

Rachael Sandberg and several of her students gather round for a selfie with the state superintendent.

Eastern Pulaski school superintendent Dan Foster commented, "I think it is nice to know that the hard work and effort that goes on here every day is kind of validated by the superintendent's visit to see our schools. All of our schools did exceptionally well last year. We think we have first-rate schools here and it's nice for someone of Glenda's stature to come and visit our schools."

Superintendent Ritz takes some extra time to talk to children at the elementary school.

To see more photos, see the Wednesday, Feb. 4 edition of the Pulaski County Journal.
