Thank You

Now that 2018 is behind us, we would like to reflect back on the wonderful year we had as a group. Our goal of giving back to our community would not be possible without all the wonderful businesses and individuals who donated money, gift cards or items for our annual feather party.

2018 was again, as were the previous years, a huge success! This event is just one of the many we do to raise money so we are able to give back! We were able to help several families in our county with Christmas gifts and food for their pantries. We also have added to our Needy Families fund so that we are able to help struggling families throughout the year in their time of need. What a blessing!

Last, but certainly not least, to the individuals who came and bought tips and bid on the auction items, we thank you all! Here's to another great year of giving back!

Thank You

The family of Owen Abbott would like to thank everyone for their love, prayers and continued support at this time of our loss.

This community and surrounding communities have done so much for our family and we will be forever grateful.

We want to thank the Plymouth EMS/First Responders, the Plymouth School Corporation, Eastern Pulaski School Corporation and the staff at Saint Joseph Regional Medical Center for taking such good care of all the students in the accident.

Special thanks to Jon Frain, Frain Mortuary, for their special care and kindness, Heath Hiatt, Church of the Heartland, for such a meaningful funeral service, all the truck drivers who took time out of your busy schedules to honor Owen's love for semis, all the pallbearers for carrying Owen to his final destination and Winamac Eagles 2580 for the wonderful meal. Also to Natalie Federal, Cheryl Warner and a special thanks to Jeff Beach for staying by Owen's side.

GOD BLESS YOU ALL!

HERE'S WHAT YOU MISSED IN THIS WEEK'S PULASKI COUNTY JOURNAL

Deputies, reserve recognized for life-saving actions

Pulaski County Sheriff's K-9 Deputy Aaron Heims was recently recognized for his quick actions as he received two meritorious awards from sheriff Jeff Richwine. Heims and K-9 Thor tracked a suspect from a burglary. While fleeing the suspect tried to run over a deputy. Heims also pulled a deputy from the path of a speeding motorist who failed to slow at a traffic stop. His life-saving award is for giving Narcan to an overdosed person.

Pulaski County Sheriff's Deputy Robert Hartley was congratulated by chief deputy Barney Rausch for receiving a life-saving award. Hartley administered Narcan to a person who overdosed.

Pulaski County Sheriff's Reserve Deputy Chris McAninch was recently recognized for performing CPR on an overdosed person in 2018.
