HERE'S WHAT YOU MISSED in this week's PULASKI COUNTY JOURNAL

Looking Back...

Stacked cans inside of Ahler's store in Medaryville were pristine to keep customers coming back for more. The photo was taken circa 1940 and donated to the collection of photos collected for the sesquicentennial appears to have been donated by Bernadine Ahler. The photo is part of the collection of Pulaski County Historical Society pictures (Vol. I, Roll 3, Neg. 2,3) collected during the sesquicentennial. The book is available for viewing, but not checking out, at the Pulaski County Public Library.

Office of Attorney General to visit Winamac

Staff members from the Office of the Attorney General will be in Winamac at the Pulaski County Public Library on June 27, from 1-3 p.m. for mobile office hours.

During office hours, constituents can take advantage of various services including:

- searching Indiana Unclaimed Property for individuals;

- talking about the latest scams including the IRS, grandparent, and jury duty scam;
- helping people file claims with the Consumer Protection Division and;
- answering questions about the Office of the Indiana Attorney General.
