Good Samaritan Store

519 W. Madison St., Winamac • 574-946-4241

THANK YOU TO OUR COMMUNITY AND SURROUNDING AREAS for your continued support of our store and our mission. With your donations, we are able to help those who are in need every day.

Due to recent changes at the Pulaski County Recycling Center and Pulaski County Transfer Station, the Good Samaritan Store must also adapt with the changes. Our not-for-profit organization must now pay to dispose of any and all trash that is useless to our mission. Our store is not the dump; however, sadly some abuse our facility. Please read the following notice carefully and be respectful of why our store is in our community.

NOTICE!

1. The following donations are no longer accepted:

Electronics of any kind (TV's, VCR's, DVD players, computers/monitors, iPads, cameras, radios, game consoles, etc).

Absolutely no items that contain freon will be accepted.

2. Please take any and all furniture that is in unusable condition (broken, ripped, torn or stained) to the transfer station.

3. Removing items from the Good Samaritan Store property before paying for them WILL RESULT IN PROSECUTION!

All items are for sale, nothing is free!

High definition security cameras have been installed on the property. Violators of these new rules will be contacted and prosecuted.

The Good Samaritan Store has been a part of our community for 50 years. If some continue to make our store and mission the "local dump," sadly, we will be forced to close our doors.

God bless you!
