In Memory

In loving memory of
Jeffrey J. Ruff
 4.9.62 – 10.15.15
 God saw you getting weaker,
 And a cure was not to be.
 So He put His arms around you,
 And whispered "Come to Me,"
 With tearful eyes we watched you,
 And saw you pass away.
 Although we loved you dearly,
 We could not make you stay.
 A golden heart stopped beating,
 Hardworking hands at rest.
 God broke our hearts to prove to us,
 He only takes the best.

ACTION PLUMBING & HEATING

HERE'S WHAT YOU MISSED IN THIS WEEK'S PULASKI COUNTY JOURNAL

Looking Back...

2006 - 10 years ago

- A Star City man suffered serious injury when he came in contact with power lines while on the job near Buffalo for Northern Indiana Public Service Company.
- An area landfill that has been monitored by state authorities for years has shown some sign of seepage in the water supply, although not at dangerous levels.

The Four County Landfill, located in Fulton County Aubbeenaubee Township, was closed in 1989 when a federal judge directed that the site be shut down and cleaned up due to hazardous materials disposed there. Since that time, the Indiana Department of Environmental Management has been overseeing clean-up efforts and monitoring area wells for contamination.

- Eastern Pulaski Community School Corporation Board met in their regular October session on Monday, Oct. 10.

Recently, the board has looked into purchasing the property containing the Winamac Laundromat. After negotiating with the owner, Bill Goble, the board was able to get a price of $115,000.

1991 - 25 years ago

- Since the formation of Sweet Beginnings Prenatal Program in January of this year, the number of women delivering babies at Pulaski Memorial Hospital with no prenatal care has dropped drastically.

There has been one delivery at PMH that had no prenatal care during the first 10 months of this year. Last year there were 15 deliveries with no prenatal care, or 1.25 per year.

- The Pulaski County Commissioners last week again discussed the need for a 911 emergency telephone system for the county.
- The Eastern Pulaski Community School Board voted at its meeting last week to hire an Indianapolis financial consultant for the proposed middle/high school building/renovation project.

1966 - 50 years ago

- The resignation of Owen Horner as manager of the Medaryville branch and director of First Union Bank & Trust Co., was accepted at a meeting of the board of directors Monday night.
- The Pulaski County United Fund campaign started last week with volunteers in all communities beginning the work of calling on residents. The goal is $18,000 to be raised on behalf of seven agencies.
- Gerald G. Raderstorf, a 37-year-old native of Pulaski and a graduate of Purdue University, is the new state recreation director, announced by the Indiana Department of Natural Resources.

1941 - 75 years ago

- Front Street and Terry Avenue are no more. These two Winamac streets together will henceforth be known as Riverside Drive.
- The extended autumn drought has been definitely broken with rainfall during the past week registering a total of 3.41 inches on the government gauge in Winamac.
- In discussing Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 5-11, Chief Paul C. Davis, of the Winamac volunteer department points to national statistics estimating that in an average week 148 people in the country will be fatally burned, of whom 32 will die in burning buildings.

1916 - 100 years ago

- Moses Rosenberg recently traded his Monterey store and residence to W. E. Spray for the old Harrison Watts farm of 100 acres in Indian Creek Township, and a few days ago Mr. Spray exchanged the Monterey property named to Charles and Alfred Fritz, of Jefferson Township, for 40 acres of the former's land and all of the latter's 80, also the latter's personal property on the farm.
- While many of the soldiers are tired of fighting, the end of the European war is not in sight, according to Miss Clara Hoffman, of Rochester, who returned recently from northern France, where she served six months in a hospital on the British front.

1891 - 125 years ago

- The dredge crossed the south road on the Lizenby grade last Tuesday. Persons going to or coming from Winamac will have to go by the Boyle bridge on the upper road.
- Mr. Emery Lowe's two youngest girls, Effie and Pearl, are suffering from the effects of poison caused by eating the seeds of jimson (stramonium) weed. The facts became known to the family last Saturday at the supper hour when the doctor was at once called. He applied the force pump and about 200 seeds were taken from each on the children's stomachs. If the facts had not been known at once, the little ones would have been dead before the next morning. It seems that the children opened the pods and ate the seeds, not knowing they were poison. The physicians who attended the patients, and those who assisted them, labored with the children all night, and the happy result is, their lives will be saved.

Students sat quite still as their photo was taken in April of 1947 at the old Winamac Catholic school. Several of the first-grade students could be identified but some are unknown. Other students were only known with a last name. Those who were identified or partially identified include (left row) Laverne Loehmer, Schneider, unknown, unknown, Brown, unknown, unknown, (second row from left) Allen Selley, unknown, Corsect, Donna Shear, Betty Braun Wallace, unknown, Dan Garrigan, (third row from left) Jerry Alexander, Don Chapman, Jim Shorter, James Roberts, Freeman, John Weaver, Dennis Pletka, (fourth row) Fred Schramm, Howard Conner, Gary Colgrove, unknown and unknown. Spellings of the names many be incorrect due to them being done from memory. Anyone who can identify the students can contact Amber at the Journal at 574-946-6628.

- A raid on the gamblers in the school house was made a few nights ago, and they got such a bump on themselves that they did not stop to pick up their pennies and nickels. They retired to the horse barn near the picnic park.
