Thank You

THANK YOU!

On February 13 Jon Chapman invited me to lunch as a gesture from a friend to talk about the fact I had completed 50 years at the same job as of February 15. Instead, when I showed up for the lunch, Jon had planned a party for me and over 30 clients, business people and friends had showed up as a surprise for me. Thank you to all that attended and gave me your well wishes. It was a great feeling to know you cared enough to help me celebrate what I consider a rare accomplishment. I thoroughly enjoyed it, and it was a surprise as I'm sure you could tell by my expression when I realized you were there for me.

Thanks to One-Eyed Jack's and all the employees for the effort to decorate and make the occasion a first-class event, in addition to the great food.

A special THANK YOU to Jon. It will always be remembered.

Thanks again everyone,
Della Wall

Managing Your Medical Bills Just Got Easier

PMH and CarePayment, a healthcare finance company, are partnering to help you navigate difficult financial times.

Although the emotional price of dealing with sudden or chronic illness may be devastating, it's only part of the picture. Even during this difficult time, you have to consider the financial implications of your or your family member's illness. It's easy to become overwhelmed by medical expenses—anyone can find himself on the brink of financial free-fall when medical expenses pile up.

CarePayment:

- Is not a collection agency or credit card company
- Does not require an application or credit approval process
- Allows you to pay off your medical bill balances in as long as 25 months
- Does not attach an interest rate—ever
- Accepts low monthly payments of 4% of the highest total balance or $25 per month, whichever is greater
- Allows all your charges to be consolidated into a single monthly payment
- Provides easy online payment option
