County Commissioner Board Appointments

Winamac Plan Commissioner

Its primary duty is recommending zoning and subdivision ordinances to the Town Council.

Candidates for the current open position must be a registered Democrat and reside in the 2-mile unincorporated jurisdictional area or own property within it.

This appointment will cover the remaining term until the end of 2026 and will be appointed to a 4-year term beginning January 1, 2027 to December 31, 2030.

For clarification or questions regarding the position. Please contact the Winamac Town Manager, Bradley Zellers at the Winamac Town Office or via phone at 574-946-3451.

Pulaski Memorial Board of Trustees

The Pulaski Memorial Hospital Board of Trustees sets mission-aligned policy, ensures cost-effective, high-quality services, measures and reports performance, advises on state budgeting and standards, and appoints medical staff privileges.

Board members should expect a monthly commitment of 4-6 hours for their duties. Candidates should have a strong interest in rural health, be able to represent diverse community needs, understand financial statements and budgeting, contribute to strategic and financial planning, and fulfill fiduciary, governance, and regulatory (including HIPAA) responsibilities. Strong preference will be given to the current Trustee when seeking re-appointment.

Trustees serve four-year terms (up to three consecutive terms). The Board meets monthly on the last Tuesday at 6:00 PM, excluding July and December, with senior leadership.

Interested persons should contact Laura Doty, Executive Assistant to the CEO and President, at (574) 946-2166 or ldoty@pmhnet.com.
